Restaurants

Breakfast included in the tariff will be taken in the Manor Restaurant but your allowance of £37.50 for dinner can be taken in either the Manor Restaurant or The Pavilion Brasserie. Light meals included as part of any Pamper Day package will be served in The Brasserie. It is recommended that table reservations for lunch and dinner are made in advance, since without a reservation, our Restaurant Managers may not be able to guarantee a table at the time you have chosen.

Dress Code

Guests are requested not to wear sports wear, t shirts or trainers when taking dinner in the Manor Restaurant. A collared shirt/smart attire is the preferred code for gentlemen at this venue. The Brasserie is our alternative restaurant where informality is more than acceptable.

Golf

Residents may use the 2132 yard 9 hole Golf Course at a charge of £15.00 per person per round. Playing residents may invite non residents to join them (maximum 3) at a charge of £15.00 per person per round. Players must provide their own clubs and there is a dress code in operation. Guests wishing to use the course should contact Reception at The Pavilion on 01233 213100.

Swimming Pools and Gymnasium

Guests are entitled to free use of our outdoor heated swimming pool which is open from 7.30am until dusk during the summer months and our indoor heated swimming pool, spa and gymnasium which are located in The Pavilion.

There is no lifeguard on duty. For reasons of safety, children under 16 years must be accompanied by a capable adult at all times whilst they are using either pool. Please note that children aged between 3 and 16 are only permitted to use the indoor pool in The Pavilion between 9.30am - 10.30am and 4.00pm - 5.00pm. Children under 16 may not use the therapy pool, sauna, steam room, jacuzzi, gymnasium or Silks Lounge. Children under 3 may not use the indoor pool.
